Dear Inmate Manning:

This letter responds to your letter of 22 September 2014 wherein you request confirmation that your copy of your record of trial can be disseminated to the public.

I advise you that you may release your personal copy of your record of trial to any person, entity or the general public, but you must comply with all US Disciplinary Barracks rules and regulations, if any, concerning any such release. You should know that a copy of your redacted record of trial has been posted to the Army FOIA reading room.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Cosgrove
Chief Programs Branch
Criminal Law Division
